WITH THE INSTITUTIONAL SUPPORT OF

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to welcome you to the 3rd Biomarkers of the Future Conference: From bedside to practice, previously known as the Biomarkers Meeting of Paris, taking place this year in a virtual format, in response to the ongoing travel restrictions and health regulations.

Following the success of the past 3 editions of the Biomarker Meeting of the Future, we are now looking towards the future with a larger, two-day, multi-disciplinary scientific programme with a broader international focus.

Over the next 2 days, you will listen from and be able to connect with international key opinion leaders, all experts within in their individual fields of life science research, along with young fellows, senior researchers and industry partners, all focusing on biomarker discovery and research. The meeting will be directed to the application of high-throughput targeted proteomics as a key tool to understand biology and pathophysiology, as well as identify protein biomarkers for early diagnosis and progression of our major complex diseases.

This guide will give you more instructions on how to connect to the platform to participate in the meeting.

Should you have any questions, please reach out to the dedicated team at Overcome who will be ready to assist you.

With our warmest regards,
The Scientific Committee
